

Happy Catholic School's Week

The week of January 29-February 3 is Catholic School's Week. We have many activities planned for this very special week. It is a time to celebrate our school and all the people who make it great! I also would like to thank you for choosing Our Lady of Guadalupe School for your child/children. We are all very honored to be a part of your child's life. Please post this letter so you may refer to it next week.

SUNDAY-January 29, 2012 OLG Open House from 10:00-1:30

- Bring a new family to tour OLG and be entered into a raffle for $100.00 credit on your tuition.

MONDAY-January 30, 2012 Hats off to our Catholic School!

- Students may wear a hat of their choice (appropriate for school).
- Students may wear mix match clothes (non matching socks; non matching pants and shirts...).

TUESDAY- January 31, 2012: Student Appreciation Day

- Students will not have homework today.
- Students may bring a board or electronic game to play at the end of the day.
- Students may wear pajamas to school (they should wear sweatpants or something warm underneath the pajamas). Pajamas should be appropriate for school.

WEDNESDAY- February 1, 2012: Community Service Day

- Each class will conduct a service project of their choosing in our school, neighborhood, or OLG Shrine.
- Students are assigned an item to bring for the gentlemen of the CAN Center. Students that bring their assigned item may have a jeans day today (this is not a $0.50 jeans day)

Kindergarten	soap or men's deodorant
First and Second	hats and gloves for men
Third	toothpaste, toothbrushes, and shaving cream
Fourth and Fifth	men's socks

THURSDAY- February 2, 2012: Volunteer/Friends of OLG Appreciation Day/Day of Prayer

- Today we will honor the many people who volunteer their time and talents at OLG School: Mr. and Mrs. Cates ("Grandma and Grandpa"), Ms. Chastain, "Grandpa Chastain", and Ms. Valles (parent of a 2nd grader and 3rd grader) for their help in the cafeteria; Coach Santoro; Mrs. Santoro (for volunteering in the second grade); Mrs. Koch (our volunteer nurse); Park University Nursing Program for providing health screenings; the school board for helping set the policies that govern our school; Mr. and Mrs. Saucedo for helping us be good servers at Mass; The Guadalupe Center Inc. for our hot lunches/breakfast and parties and special activities throughout the year; Fr. Al and Fr. Mike for saying our Masses and visiting our classrooms; Ms. Sanchez for providing after-school care and helping raise funds for special activities and field trips; The Kansas City Ballet for sponsoring dance classes to our 4th and 5th graders; all our school parents who consistently support us and help in fundraising efforts; the teachers and staff who always go above what is expected; and all those who have donated funds to help our school.
- We will pray the rosary at 2:50 in honor of our volunteers and "friends of OLG School".
- We will stop each hour to say a special prayer of thanks.

FRIDAY-February 4, 2011: Teacher Appreciation Day/Dress-Up Day

- You are invited to attend Mass with us at 8:30 in the Shrine. Representatives from each class will read a passage they wrote about why they like their school.
- Students may wear their uniforms or dress clothes. This is not a jeans day. Clothing should be slacks and dress shirt, dresses...
- Students may make cards or letters for their teachers.
- Teachers will be treated to a special lunch following our noon dismissal. Please make sure to pick up your child/children at noon so all the teachers can enjoy our lunch together.
